Singapore Airlines General Conditions of Travel:

1. Travel is restricted to Singapore Airlines' operated services only.
2. Travellers are expected to observe the following conditions as part of the utilisation of travel:

Be neatly and appropriately attired when travelling;

Not carry, on their person, in their luggage or carry-on baggage, any contraband or goods which are prohibited by the laws of Singapore or the country of their final destination, or goods which are unsuitable for carriage on a commercial aircraft;

Observe all directions of SIA's ground staff and air crew at all times;

Comply with the requirements of immigration and customs authorities in each country

Comply with the laws of the jurisdiction they are visiting.

3. Frequent Flyer mileage cannot be accrued on any of the free or concession travel undertaken in accordance with clause 3.1 of this Agreement.
4. Charges for excess baggage shall apply where a passenger seeks to carry more than their entitlement of luggage. In such cases, SIA will not be liable for any charges incurred by the passenger.
5. Tickets are valid for the period specified on the ticket. Unused travel at the expiry of the validity period cannot be refunded or re-utilised. Once a journey commences (i.e. the point at which the first flight coupon is redeemed for travel), the utilisation of the commitment for free tickets is deemed to have been made against the provision stated above.
6. Travel is not convertible to cash and does not include any departure, airport and Government taxes and charges, which remain the responsibility of the prize winner.
7. SIA reserves its right to impose particular flight embargoes during periods of heavy demand as is required commercially from time to time.
8. Travellers must hold valid passports with a minimum of 6 months validity at time of travel. Travellers must organise their own visas and requisite travel documentation (such as relevant valid international drivers' licenses) for trips and any visa or passport charges are their sole responsibility. SIA cannot be held responsible for the traveller being unable to participate in the travel due to visa or other restrictions. Any fines, penalties, payments or expenditures incurred as a result of such travel documents not meeting the requirements of those authorities will be the sole responsibility of the traveller/s. At all times, it will be the responsibility of the traveller to ensure that his/her passport is in order and that he/she has the necessary visa clearances to enter the country of destination and, if required, any transit point.

9. Tickets are considered 'staff' tickets, thus passengers travelling will be subject to applicable staff priority grades and conditions of travel, including but not limited to: using staff check-in counters in Singapore, no lounge access, subject to dress code, no rerouting/hotel accommodation or meals in case of flight disruption, subject to on-load priority in case of overbooking.
10. In the event of a missed connection resulting from a flight delay, passengers will be rebooked on the next available Singapore Airlines operated flight to the same destination. In such cases, SIA will not be liable for any additional expenses incurred and/or the cost of alternate travel arrangements (i.e. outside of SIA operated flights) made by passengers as a result of the delay.
11. Tickets are not transferable and must be issued only in the correct name of the person travelling.
